

1

Only trained people should operate forklift.

2

Always check the forklift (as trained) before and after operating the forklift. Must notify the responsible person if it going broken.

3

Always lifting commodity in accordance with forklift's capacity and size.

4

Forks are always at the widest position so that the commodity is always balanced while lifting, handling or shipping.

5

The operator must keep right posture ( as instruction) to avoid unexpected injuries if there is a collision with operating forklift.

10 TIPS for SAFER FORKLIFT OPERATION

6

Always use lights (light) or trumpets (sound) before moving towards the corner suddenly or out of sight.

7

To maintain balance and maximum safety operation, it is essential to keep the package leaning against the frame by the way tilting behind lifting frame a corner of 60° and keeping goods at the position as low as possible.

8

To get the best and safest vision, the operator should move it backward when lifting, unloading the oversized, voluminous and out of sight packages.

9

When crossing the tracks, the operator should let each wheel move diagonally.

10

Absolutely don't lifting up the forklift when in the middle of slopes or when lifting frame is leaning forward or backward.